

AMANIKATUJIA – ENGLIS VERSHION

*Peace will come and give us a hug, my friend.
It will embrace us all with strong arms, so we will become like beautiful wildflowers.
And each of us will be brothers, equal but amazingly unique. (spoken)*

Peace will look at each of us one by one right in the eyes, we'll know how easy it was to welcome peace among the people of the earth.

Weapons will be all silent, will lose power and they slowly will be converted in fragrant and ripe scented fruits in the meantime.

Each heart will be together, creating a patchwork of sounds and colors

Minds will soon learn to draw the goodness working all together and goodness in the end will really flood this old and dry and arid land

*Peace will come and it will have your face on it, my friend (spoken)
With her sturdy arms, she'll gently lure us, to herself, you know
Everyone, will be equal, but special like a field of wildflowers
But . . . peace is coming here..*
